

From: William Enouen
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/15/02 8:11am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Gentlemen: At a time when American Industry is challenged to continue to do better and the technology firms are in a downturn, it would seem appropriate to conclude some of the legal activities against Microsoft with just settlements rather than letting such settlements drag on, costing the company and its shareholders and the government and its taxpayers. The case should be concluded and the settlement agreed upon allowed so both parties can get on with more effective use of their time. Thanks for your attention.